

Halton Region Agricultural Forum

"A Sustainable Future"

Driven by rapid advances in technology, Canada's agriculture and food sector has more opportunities than ever before to shape a sustainable future. The 7th annual Agricultural Forum explores new research and agri-tech that is helping reduce carbon emissions and protect the environment for future generations.

GARY CARR
Regional Chair

Who should attend?

- Farmers
- Food Processors
- Other agri-product processors
- Related associations and organizations

For more information, please contact:

Anna DeMarchi-Meyers
Anna.DeMarchi-Meyers@halton.ca
905-825-6000 ext. 7574

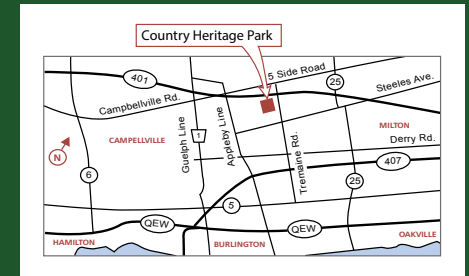

Event details

Thursday, April 11, 2019

7 – 9 p.m.

Country Heritage Park (Puslinch Town Hall)
8560 Tremaine Rd, Milton

Register online at halton.ca

Featured topics and speakers

Ontario Agri-Food Technologies, Guelph, ON

Tyler Whale, President

Clovermead Farms Inc./Cornerstone Renewables, Alma, ON

Korb Whale, Owner

Ontario Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs

Jake DeBruyn, Engineer, New Technology Integration

Fidale Farms/Ontario Biomass Producers Cooperative Inc.

Jamie Fisher, President

